

Attention Anglers

- Riverfront land owners have brought successful civil trespass claims against anglers fishing in the vicinity of the two portions of the river highlighted. In light of these court actions, anglers may find it advisable to seek the permission of the riverfront property owners.
- No Trespassing on the stream banks. Respect private property!

