

The garden at Mason's Cove Elementary School is already attracting bluebirds and other wildlife.

Fort Lewis Elementary School's natural area includes the watershed pond, an arbor area, and raised beds growing plants native to Virginia.

